

Residential Housing in Baltimore Neighborhoods Throughout History

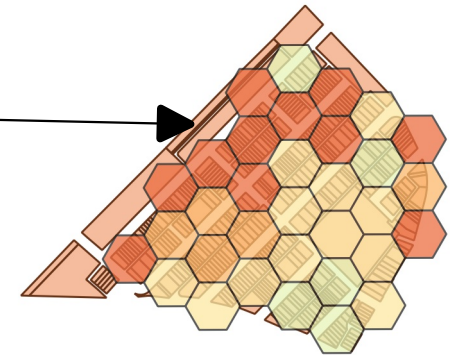

Mount Vernon

Heritage Crossing

Woodbourne Crossing

Mount Winans

Year Classification

- 1803: First recorded residential buildings
- 1831: Baltimore Ohio Railroad built
- 1861-1865: American Civil War
- 1904: Great Baltimore Fire & changes to building codes
- 1937: United States Housing Act of 1937 created a federally funded housing program
- 1968: Fair Housing Act signed days after race riots
- 1978: Federal government banned lead paint
- 2000: Turn of the century
- 2018: Present

300 0 300 600 m

Projection:
WGS 84/Pseudo-Mercator

Data source:
City of Baltimore Open GIS Data Site
Mary Aronne